

HTML Image

Image can be inserted in the HTML documents using tag src attribute in the tag is used to get path of image you want to insert

alt attribute is used to provide alternative text width and height attribute is used to control width and height of image

Syntax

Example:

Image Extension

- JPEG (Joint Photographic Experts Group)
- JPG
- GIF (Graphics Interchange Format)
- SVG (Scalable Vector Graphics)
- PNG (Portable Graphics Format)

Browser Support a

- Google Chrome
- Mozilla Firefox
- Internet Explorer (Microsoft Corporation)
- Opera (Opera Software)
- Apple Safari
- Edge
- And More

HTML Image Importance

- It is very necessary to insert image in your website that create a good impression to user.
- Don't use duplicate image
- Images are best for SEO
- Don't forget to include alt attribute
- User take interest to view image
- User learn any topic easily through image / diagram than reading only text

HTML Image as Link

You can make a image clickable, it is very easy to do. Just insert a image between the  tag. And give a href link, when a user click on the image, it will redirect to that mentioned path or URL

✓

Where alt is used for alternative text